Affidavit of W.M.Dye.

State of California, }
City and County of San Francisco. } ss.

W.M.Dye, being duly sworn/deposes and says:

That he is an Insurance Broker by occupation, being connected with the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company, having offices at #422 California Street, San Francisco:

That affiant's business has been confined chiefly to the Fire Insurance business amongst the Chinese colony of San Francisco, and has extended continuously over a period of about forty years past:

That affiant knows Lung Yep intimately, and has been acquainted with the said Lung Yep since the earliest infancy of said Lung Yep:

That to the positive knowledge of the affiant the said Lung Yep was born in the City and County of San Francisco State of California, about thirty-three-(33) years ago, and that affiant is able to testify as to this fact for the following reasons:-

That affiant acted as the Insurance Broker who transacted the insurance business for the firm of Angh Kee & Company, a firm of Merchants, dealing in provisions, groceries, etc., principally by wholesale, who formerly had a store at #738 Sacramento Street, in said City of San Francisco;

That affiant did so transact the said business for the said firm at the time of the birth of the said Lung Yep;

That affiant also transacted the Marine Insurance for the said firm at the time alluded to:

That Lung Wing Pet, the father of Lung Yep, was one of the partners of the said firm, and that, speaking English, was consequently active in the conduct of the business of the said firm when its dealings brought it in contact with white people;

That affiant was, at, and before the time of the birth of the said Lung Yep, particularly intimate in his connection with the said firm and its said partners through his Insurance business, but was brought into almost daily contact with the partners of this store through the fact that affiant was engaged in teaching English, during the evenings, to one of the frequenters of the said store:

That the person whom affiant was then teaching was Tong Bong, then a boy, now at the head of the firm of Sing Fat & Company of the said City, and who is one of the affiant's testifying in this case as to the American Nativity of the said Lung Yep:

That affiant did previously teach English to one Lai Tot, another member of the said firm:

That the said firm has latterly become merged into a new firm, Chew Ying Lung & Company, and that many of the children and grand-children of the former firm are now active in its management; :

That the foregoing statement relative to the firm is submitted in order to make clear affiant's relationship to it as business agent and teacher, not to say friend;

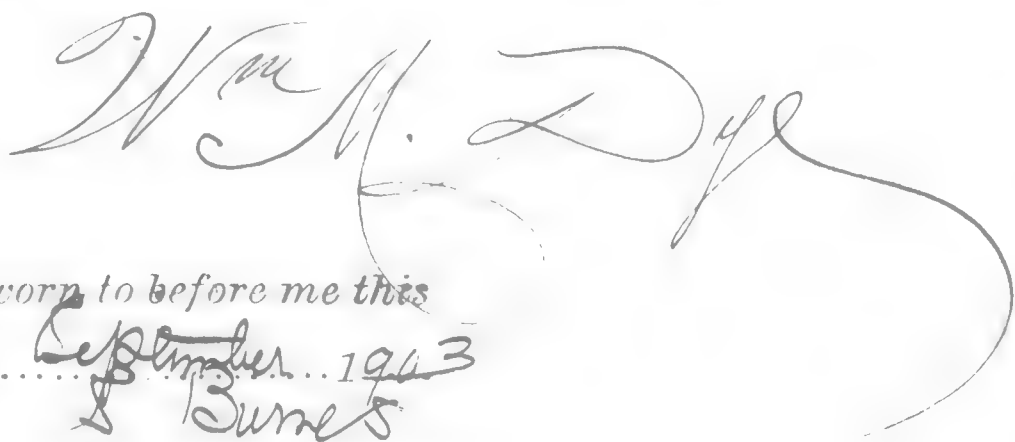

That this statement is furthermore submitted for the reason that above the said store lived and was born the said Lung Yep; whom affiant first saw as a mere babe in its mother's arms, and has seen grow through the stages of childhood up to his present age;

That affiant recalls the personality of the father of the said Lung Yep distinctly, although he left this country for China nearly Thirty years ago, as a tall man possessing many estimable qualities and a benignant visage;

That the purpose of this affidavit is to assist the said Lung Yep in securing a United States Passport:

That the photograph attached to Lung Yep's Certificate of Birth, herewith, is a correct likeness of the said Lung Yep;

That affiant is prepared to substantiate all of the statements hereinbefore set forth, and invites their investigation, if it be considered necessary in order to satisfactorily aid in establishing the right of the said Lung Yep to receive the passport desired.

WILLIAM W. DYE
WITH THE
LIVERPOOL & LONDON & GLOBE INS. CO.
422 CALIFORNIA ST., S. F.

422 California Street, San Francisco, Sept., 22d, 1903

Hon. Chief of Passport Bureau,
Department of State,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

In conformity with your instructions, I forward to you enclosed, additional affidavits to establish the claims of American nativity of Lung Yep, as per your letter of September 16th, 1903.

It is greatly regretted that the Department did not look favorably upon the affidavits of Tong Bong and P. Garety as sufficient, and these are now supplemented by the affidavits of the midwife who took this boy from his mother's womb, and a white witness who frequently transacted business with Lung Yep's father before and after the said Lung Yep's birth.

As to Tong Bong; a simple inquiry of the officers of the Chinese Bureau of the Department of Commerce and Labor at this Port will convince you that he is, perhaps, the most trustworthy and reliable of the Chinese of this city, as well as one of the most successful and well thought of amongst our own people. The undersigned has been acquainted with him over forty years, and taught him English in the early days. The undersigned will gladly pay the cost of telegrams to vouch for the standing of Tong Bong.

As to Tong Bong's ability to testify in this case; he is the uncle of Lung Yep. His sister was the wife of Lung Yep's father. He resided in the city where his said nephew was born, at the time of his said nephew's birth, and in the same house. It seems that Tong Bong's father and Lung Yep's father were partners in the same firm, Angh Kee & Company. His affidavit covers all these points, albeit briefly, but I cannot reach him at present, to make an additional statement on account of the fact that all the stores in the Chinese Quarter are closed in deference to the obsequies of a high Chinese official, whose funeral is now being held.

As to Patriok Garety; this man is one of the few old-timers left in the San Francisco Chinatown who at this day continues at the occupation he was engaged in 35 or 40 years ago. His son now assists him in the draying business. His affidavit sets forth the manner in which he is able to testify as to this Applicant's American nativity. He did the draying for this boy's father at the time of the boy's birth; his stand was quite near the store of the boy's father, he ran in and out frequently on business matters, and has seen this child grow up to manhood.

His affidavit covers all these points in a few words, and no one could have more than indefinite impressions after a lapse of 35 years, of a matter concerning the birth of one of his customers. I respectfully invite investigation as to his trustworthiness.

The midwife, Sam So, now a feeble old crone, has been looked up and is fortunately alive to add her testimony to prove Lung Yep's allegations of American birth. Her affidavit is enclosed herewith.

Since the Department laid so much stress upon the necessity for white testimony, I have added my own affidavit to the others. I respectfully submit the same to you for consideration. In it I have endeavored to set forth why I am in a position to testify.

Since I am preparing the application for Lung Yep, I did not desire to appear as a witness, as such a course might look suspicious. As I have previously stated, it is extremely difficult for a foreigner to procure truthful, and satisfactory statements ^{by race} from whites (after a period of 33 years) testifying as to any of the facts connected with those times.

If any doubts exist as to the standing of myself, I trust that you will kindly refer to the Chinese Bureau, of the Department of Commerce and Labor at this Port by wire, money for which is enclosed.

Lung Yep is compelled to leave here, as before stated, on the S.S. "China", sailing September 29th. He is very much discouraged about the delay in securing his Passport, and asks that I beseech of you to wire at his expense as to the outcome of this enclosed application and the papers which accompany it, as soon as possible after the receipt thereof.

Our original applications were made upon suggestions of one of our Congressmen whom we supposed conversant with the requirements. Latterly, we tried to conform with your instructions and trust that at last we have succeeded.

Kindly oblige the applicant by acceding to his request as to telegraphing the result of this last application.

If the result be favorable, his Uncle, Tong Bong, will be able to forward the Passport to him, wherever he may be in his travels.

With sincerest regret for the annoyances we have caused the Department through misunderstanding of requirements,

I am,

Very respectfully,

Irvington, N. J.
Oct 3, 1903.

Dear Sir;

Please find enclosed an application for a passport. Also the dollar for the fee. What I think is not merely morbid conscientiousness requires me to add a few words.

I am a foreign missionary of nine years standing, now home on furlough, and like most missionaries I am under "life appointment"; i.e., to keep faith with the board sending me, I must remain abroad till permanently incapacitated by old age or otherwise, — except for occasional furloughs (like the prospective return ten years from now, referred to in the application).

My last "permanent home" in this country was at Woodstock, Vt., where I was pastor ten years ago, and as I have no other "home" in this country I presume it may still be called so, tho' I have no house there.

I assume that the above facts can be brought within the technical meanings of the phrases of the application, but common honesty impels me to accompany the application with this plain statement of facts, and I desire to be permitted to withdraw the application if the Department's definitions of its phrases are such as to make its assertions in my case falsehoods.

Respectfully Yours,

E. C. Fry

Dear Sir:-

I enclose $1.00 and the application of Mr Bernhard A

Sinn.

Mr Sinn is unable to produce the naturalization certificate of his father, as the certificate has been mislaid or lost.

He however produces two Passports issued to his father-the one in 1871 prior to the applicant's birth and the other issued in 1897.

I trust these will be sufficient to enable the Passport to be issued to Mr Bernhard A Sinn, who will sail on Tuesday next on S S Deutschland.

Yours truly,

Court of Wisconsin at Milwaukee on the 4th day of August, 1900, as shown by the accompanying Certificate of Naturalization; that I am the IDENTICAL PERSON described in said Certificate; that I am domiciled in the United States, my permanent residence being at ... in the State of Wisconsin, where I follow the occupation of front dealer; that I am about to go abroad temporarily; and that I intend to return to the United States about March, 1904, with the purpose of residing and performing the duties of citizenship therein. The orthography of my name as here subscribed is correct. The reason it does not conform to the Certificate of naturalization is that I could not write or spell the English language at that time & the spelling was wrongly given by another person.

Honorable John Hay,

Sir:-

In the matter of the application of Lee Thick Jew and Lee Thick Lin, minor children of Chinese parentage, native born citizens of the United States, for issuance of passports, we have the honor to return herewith the original application filed by us on September 22, 1903. This application was returned by the Department on September 23rd, with the request that a separate application be made in each case. We returned the application to our correspondent in San Francisco, with a copy of the letter of the Department, and are now in receipt of his reply, wherein he states that the absence of the mother of the children renders it impossible for other applications to be executed, and that unless passports are issued on this form, the application must be abandoned. We enclose herewith a copy of the pertinent parts of the letter referred to.

We submit these facts to the Department, with the request that if it is possible to issue these passports on this application, such action be taken by the Department. This is in view of the fact that the application is one respecting which there was no precedent upon which to base a form of application, and the applicants have been endeavoring to secure the issuance of passports for several months past.
